Q15-17. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it:

   Patience is better than wisdom; An ounce of patience is worth a pound of brains. All men praise patience, but few can practise it. It is a medicine which is good for all diseases, but it is not every garden that grows the herbs to make it with. Many people are born crying, live complaining and die disappointed. They think every other person’s burden to be light and their own feathers to be heavy as lead, and yet if the truth were known, it is their fancy rather than their fate that makes things go so hard with them. Many would be well off than what they think of.

Q15. Which of the following is the most suitable explanation to the author's remark that an "ounce of patience is worth a pound of brains"?
   (a) Wisdom can only be attained by practising patience.
   (b) Patience comes first, wisdom next.
   (c) Patience is essential for every achievement in life.
   (d) Without patience wisdom cannot be used properly.
Q16. Which one is the most likely explanation, among the following, of the author’s metaphorical statement that “it is not every garden that grows the herbs to make it with”?
(a) Patience is a must for solving all our problems in life.
(b) Patience is a rare herb that cures all diseases.
(c) Patience is virtue of a highest order.
(d) It is only a small number of people that are found observing patience in life.

Q17. The writer’s remarks, “They think every person’s burden to be light and their own feathers to be as heavy as lead” is very significant. It means
(a) They are always worried and dejected.
(b) They consider their own problems to be difficult to solve as compared with problems of other people.
(c) They feel that they alone face serious problems while others have a nice time.
